GLEICHEN EXHIBITION AND SPORTS PROVED SUCCESSFUL

Big Crowds, Splendid Exhibits, Good Sports, Bad Accident, Everybody Pleased, Live Stock Judges Compliment Gleichen

"I had ten dollars worth of real good fun for one dollar at your Gleichen stampede," said George Warren of the Calgary Grand Theatre. "Gleichen has always had a reputation and now I know why. A show like this would take anywhere. I am glad to be here and would not have missed it for anything. Count me a Gleichen booster wherever I may go."

Judge Hutton of Lacombe, who was sent here as official judge of horses by the Alberta Government, said:

"I am agreeably surprised to see such a fine display of livestock, and may say you have the best I have seen this year. Many of the animals are equal to the best I have ever seen and there evidently is a lot of good stock about Gleichen. In my fifteen years of judging I never saw three get of one sire equal to these three horses belonging to Mr. Prowse."

Guy Weadick, manager of the Calgary Stampede, paid many compliments to our riders and was most anxious they should be in Calgary to take part in the big stampede. He said he had never seen better riding than right here in Gleichen and was sure some of the best prizes offered at Calgary should come here.

The above are only a few of the many compliments showered upon the officials of the Gleichen District Agricultural Association's tenth annual exhibition, which exceeded in nearly every respect the most sanguine expectation of the most optimistic. As the Calgary Morning Albertan remarked in its report: "Despite the fact that it was staged right in the middle of the harvesting season, and that the farmers have been burned out and haled out alternately, the tenth annual fair and stampede was a great success."

Not a few from Calgary and other points wanted to know why the stampede was not advertised more extensively and it may be well here to explain that there was no intention of putting on a stampede and no stampede was even attempted. Gleichen put on exactly what was advertised, a good fair, some sports and a few bucking contests, that was all. When Gleichen advertises a stampede it will be the real thing and plenty of it.

Although the sports program is a hibition it was a good one and most thoroughly enjoyed. Many declared they never saw better riding, real wild bucking horses.

The auto races not filling and it being impossible to get another baseball team to go up against the local team Friday afternoon the first event was a Shetland pony race. They were all green ponies and created no end of fun. B. Wilson taking first money, followed by I. Young and D. Young.

The relay race was very interesting and was won by Clarence Davis, Jimmy Dew taking second money.

The rest of the day was taken up with the bucking contest and there were thrills a plenty for the spectators as they watched the antics of the worst bucking horses known in world today. The riders were:

Jimmy Ryan on Dynamite.
Miles Clarke on H2 and Domino.
Dick Neil on Big Enough.
Vic Scott on T J Blue.
Clarence Davis on One Spot.

On Saturday the riders in the bucking contest were:
Jimmy Ryan on Mary Jane and Domino.
Dick Neil on Crawling Valley and T J Blue.

Vic Scott on Perscription
Clarence Davis on Big Enough
The contest resulted in Vic Scott winning first money, Clarence Davis second and Dick Neil third.

As a grand final exhibition Vic Scott rode the famous bucking horse "Fox" and Jimmy Ryan rode "Ray". These are McHugh Bros. horses that made life miserable for the cowboys at New York.

The Indian half-mile was won by Donald, Stud Horse and Bear Robe.
The three-eighth mile, 142 and under was won by Riley's horse, ridden by Jack Moss, after an exciting finish, Clifton taking second place and Davies third.

The half-mile open was won by Clifton of Vulcan and was one of the best races of the day, finishing with Riley a close second and Davies third.

The half-mile Shetland was not finished as Beach's pony, ridden by Neal McMillan, ran out of the gate and up set the rider. He pluckily Gleichen fell down once and the aim at this fair was to stand up and make good—that was fully accomplished. The small exhibit of live stock was the trouble at the last fair and the government judge complained of too little work. This year the judge had no such complaint for it was nearly 5 o'clock Friday evening when their work was completed. It was for this reason the sports that afternoon were so late in starting, and no apology it offered as the judging is of paramount importance to all successful exhibitions and he said the judging was fair, perfectly fair and highly commented upon by those most interested.

The weather conditions for the two days was ideal, being very warm, no rain and hardly sufficient wind. The dance in the big open air pavilion each night was a great success and thoroughly enjoyed by immense crowds of young people, Mrs. Trainor's orchestra fully sustaining its reputation. Our Citizens Band also came in for no little commendation and materially aided in cheering up the spectators during hot afternoons.

There may be room for criticism of too long waits between events, but Gleichen cayuses have a reputation to uphold of pure cussedness and if some critics had tried saddling these pets on schedule time they might now be above airplane reach.

The one regrettable feature of the two days was the accident to Mrs. Barry, wife of Prof. Barry, the horse trainer. She proved an excellent rider and when the ladies race was about to start the horse Miss Woods was riding started off at a good rate and at one time seemed to get beyond her control. Mrs. Barry followed and passed her by some distance when her saddle girth broke and she was thrown heavily to the ground, the horse's hind feet striking her and rendering her unconscious for a short time. Dr. Rose on examination found that Mrs. Barry's right arm had been broken, her collar bone injured and suffering from the blow on the head. She has suffered a great deal but is recovering.

The number of entries for the fair was away up in the hundreds, and while some departments were not so numerous other departments made up for the deficiencies.

The educational department was better filled than ever with as good a display as could be seen anywhere.

The ladies work was not only large but of exceptional quality. It was most favorable commented on by all the visitors and is said by those who should know to equal that of the best fairs in the Dominion.

The same may be said of the cooking and dairy departments as for quality, but was it hardly up to the mark in number of exhibits.

While the exhibits of grains and grasses and vegetable were not as numerous as might have been expected on examination one would never give a thought of this being a year of drought, for a finer display of roots and vegetables could hardly be seen at this season any year. There was excellent sheaves of wheat, oats, barley, flax, peas, etc., while the exhibits of rye grass, alfalfa, timothy and other grass were simply magnificent. While these exhibits must be largely attributed to Gleichen, being located in the centre of the greatest irrigation system on the American continent, it is not all due to irrigation, in fact a good percentage is the result of summerfallow.

The poultry pens were well filled with fine birds of nearly every variety known and a marked improvement was here noted.

The sheep and swine pens were not all occupied, yet the exhibits were of the very best grades and attracted attention.

Considering the busy season the cattle exhibits were very good and contained some valuable animals.

The horses attracted the most attention, being the largest and best exhibit for a number of years. For four hour hundreds of people stood in the hot sun to watch Mr. Hutton judge the many fine animals and while he was followed closely not once was their an open objection raised to his decisions. It would be impossible to mention individually all the fine horses, but Mr. John Prowse and all Gleichenites may feel proud to know the judge said he never saw the equal to Nonpareil Lad, Nonpareil Blend and Nonpareil Model for the get of one sire. Also be it remembered Judge Hutton said that Gleichen has the best class of horses that he has judged this year, and he is the official judge for the Alberta Government.

The entire exhibition was a grand improvement on former fairs and the directors may well feel proud of success achieved, especially as just now the hum of the binder is heard in every direction, having started ten days earlier than in ordinary years.

While all worked hard to achieve the success we must take off our hats to President Dafee and Secretary Mallory for leadership and ceaseless energy expended.

Messrs. Young, James, Beach, and McMillan were the sports and entertainment committee and all will agree that they deserve the greatest credit for their untiring and successful efforts in performing so difficult a part.

The fun enjoyed by the bucking contests is entirely due to the generous contribution of $5 each for prizes from the following:

Passing Of Andrew Carnegie

Some Side Lights on the Life of the Noted Steel Magnate.

"It's a disgrace to die rich!" shouted Andrew Carnegie from the house-tops in 1901. He died the possessor of at least a third of a billion dollars. At the time he made that famous declaration he had just "held up" Morgan and the latter's coterie of Wall street financiers for $400,000,000, the price the United States Steel corporation paid for the Carnegie steel mills. Carnegie then began to realize that he was a multimillionaire, one of the richest of the rich, and that he was drawing near to the biblical allotment of life—"threescore and ten years."

Then and there he put behind him the wealth producing business of making steel rails and assumed the role of a world philanthropist. The coupons clipped from his bonds were not put back into industrial activity; they were diverted to a new and a charitable use.

Much has been written and much more has been said in the way of criticism concerning Andrew Carnegie's public benefactions, his grants to colleges, technical schools, institutions for special research, the hero commission, and his other donations to various national and international enterprises, including the $1,500,000 peace building at The Hague.

The tone of some of these criticisms gives the impression that Carnegie bestowed his public bounty chiefly for the sake of notoriety and to be eulogized.

If that is true, he exceeded the efforts of the best press agent the world has ever known. The name of Carnegie is indelibly carved in stone. In the foundation stones and over imposing front entrances posterity will read that name years after Carnegie's contemporary millionaire philanthropists are absolutely forgotten.

He made a business of giving libraries away. In every state and territory of the union Carnegie libraries testify that the old ironmaster placed books ahead of everything else as of importance to a people. His libraries dot the entire world; over 2,000 of them were erected by him at a cost of nearly $52,000,000; in America, in Canada, in Europe, in Africa, Australia, Asia, Carnegie libraries welcome the knowledge-hungry to the font of wisdom.

His libraries were not always appreciated by the recipients. There was always a string attached. Carnegie erected the palatial palace and filled the shelves with books, but after that his support was withdrawn, and the taxpayers were left to sustain and develop it. There were some who preferred bread to books. These declared that upon an empty stomach books were too heavy, and some intimated that were the vast riches of Carnegie and his fellow millionaires in the right pockets, the working man could and would buy his own books—after having had enough bread.

In answer, Carnegie said: "I like library giving for one reason particularly. The library gives nothing for nothing. The youth who is improved by it, must co-operate. If he does not read and study he finds no reward. Free public libraries are the cradles of triumphant democracy."

Among his benefactions were $10,000,000 to the Carnegie institute, Washington; the same amount to Scotch universities; $5,000,000 for a fund for the benefit of employees of the Carnegie Steel Co.; $5,000,000 for a "hero fund," a commission which awards with money or medal, or both, heroic attempts to save life; $1,500,000 for the Peace temple at The Hague; $1,500,000 to the allied engineers' society; $750,000 for the buildings for Bureau of American Republics at Washington; $6,000,000 to Carnegie institute at Pittsburgh, and $10,000,000 for a college professors' fund.

In all he gave away $150,000,000, which, as his annual net income was over $14,000,000, barely touched the immense principal. Though he declared that he had a horror of dying rich, nevertheless he kept the principal of his fortune intact.

He died rich because his income insisted upon keeping pace with his benefactions.

There is another side to Carnegie's life—the money-making side, which dates from the time he landed at Castle Garden a poor Scotch immigrant. He was then but eleven years old, having been born November 25, 1837, at Dunfermline, Scotland. The Carnegie family settled in Pittsburgh, where young Andrew started out in life as an apprentice in a cotton factory.

When fourteen he became a messenger boy and learned telegraphy between calls. While still in his teens he became a telegraph operator on the Pennsylvania lines, advancing step by step to a division superintendent. He helped organize the Woodruff Sleeping Car company, and with it as a nucleus built up his gigantic fortune.

Careful investments in oil lands helped to furnish the means for the establishment of the Keystone Bridge company and the Union iron works. Carnegie introduced into this country the Bessemer process of making steel in 1868.

Carnegie was the principal owner of the Homestead steel mills. It was at Homestead where the fearful riots of labor against the Pinkertons took place in 1892.

In 1899 the various Carnegie companies were consolidated in the Carnegie Steel company, which two years later was merged in the steel trust. This ended Carnegie's career as a steel manufacturer. During the many years he was forging to the front in that field he developed many men. It was his habit to pick out level-headed young men and take them into the company, giving them a portion of the profits without a cent of investment upon their part.

Price Of Hides Falling

Since the Government Placed an Embargo on Exports.

Ottawa. — The price of hides for the manufacture of boots and shoes is falling in Canada since the government placed an embargo on exports of hides, skins and leather, at the advice of the cost of living commissioner, on August 4.

The price of hides has dropped 10c and on calfskins 20c on the Montreal market.

"This decline in the price of raw material, following the government's action, should, if it continued," said the commissioner, "obviate an advance on boots and shoes, and if continued far enough, should cause an actual decline in these prices."

Nothing Like It For Bronchitis And Weak Throat

Remarkable Cures in the Worst Cases Reported Daily.

Cures Without Using Drugs.

Doctors now advocate an entirely new method for treating bronchitis and irritable throat. Stomach dosing is no longer necessary.

The most approved treatment consists of a healing vapor resembling the pure air of the Adirondacks. This soothing vapor is full of germ-destroying substances, and at the same time is a powerful healing agent. It is sent to the bronchial tubes and lungs through a skillfully devised inhaler that can be carried in the vest pocket. Simplicity itself is the keynote of this splendid treatment.

CATTARRHOZONE is the name of this wonderful invention that is daily curing chronic cases of weak throat, bronchitis and catarrh. Every breath through the inhaler is laden with soothing, healing substances that destroy all diseased conditions in the breathing organs, it can't fail to cure because it goes where the trouble really exists, and doesn't attempt to cure an illness in the head or throat by means of medicine taken into the stomach. Cattarrhozone is a direct breathable scientific cure.

There is no sufferer from a grippy cold or any winter ill, that won't find a cure in Cattarrhozone, which is employed by physicians, ministers, lawyers and public men throughout many foreign lands. Large size lasts two months and cost $1.00 and is guaranteed; small size 50c, sample size 25c, all storekeepers and druggists, or the Cattarrhozone Co., Kingston, Canada.

Chinese Boycott Japanese Goods

Evidently Giving Japan Cause For Pretty Serious Thought.

One of the very interesting things happening just now in the world is the indignant boycott of Japanese goods by the Chinese people, a form of protest which is evidently giving Japan cause for pretty serious thought. So long as the wisdom of China maintains a peaceful boycott there is, seemingly, little that Japan can do but meditate on the fact that about 75 per cent. of her exports go normally to China, and wonder how long China will stick. Meantime the Chinese newspapers counsel the public against any action that can be construed as a departure from this peaceful procedure, and in nearly all the advertisements of Chinese merchants appears the phrase, "We sell no Japanese goods." A peaceful boycott might be called a cautious kind of revolution, and as once said Confucius, "The cautious seldom err."—Christian Science Monitor.

Independence Is Real

South Africa Gains Advantage Through Being of British Empire.

London. — The Times' Capetown correspondent quotes the Cape Times' comment on Lord Milner's Oxford speech when his lordship emphasized the position of independence of the dominions within the league of nations.

"The independence which South Africa has gained," says the Cape Times, "is a real and tangible thing which owes its being to the existence of the link with the British Empire. The independence for which some cry is unreal and intangible and can never be achieved and if realizable would find South Africa short of the capacity to develop, and ruinously handicapped in the struggles ahead."

War Saving Stamps Are Selling Well

Campaign In Canada Is Progressing Most Favorably.

That the War Savings Stamp Campaign in Canada is progressing most favorably is shown by comparing the per capita sales for the month of May, against those for the same period in the United States. In Canada during the month of May the per capita sales amounted to .054 while in the United States they were .06.

Considering that in the United States the War Savings Stamp Campaign commenced one year in advance of the campaign in Canada and that our American cousins had the stimulus of war propaganda for about a year to introduce the Thrift Stamps, the comparison is very favorable to this country.

Montreal As A Port

Handles Ocean Traffic Greater Than Any American City Except New York.

It may surprise some readers to learn that for the seven months or so during which it is open the port of Montreal handles ocean traffic greater than that of any American city except New York. Its tonnage is also steadily increasing and better methods of ice breaking have extended its season. It has strategic advantages similar to our own in being a railroad terminus and central distributing point for trade converging from a vast territory.

And Canada is alive to its great importance. The Dominion government co-operates liberally with local enterprise. Recently $28,000,000 has been spent on terminals, dredging, docks and other things necessary to security. The department of marine is at work deepening the St. Lawrence to thirty-five feet to the sea, and the channel should be complete in a short time.

They not only talk about things, but do them, and do them well. It is another example for our congressmen to ponder, as well as an incentive to our own activity.—New York Sun.

Laugh When People Step On Your Feet

Try this yourself then pass it along to others. It works!

Ouch! Ouch! This kind of rough talk will be heard less here in town if people troubled with corns will follow the simple advice of this Cincinnati authority, who claims that a few drops of a drug called freezone when applied to a tender, aching corn stops soreness at once, and soon the corn dries up and lifts right out without pain.

He says freezone is an ether compound which dries immediately and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding tissue or skin. A quarter of an ounce of freezone will cost very little at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Millions of American women will welcome this announcement since the inauguration of the high heels.

German Exactions Against Hollanders

Forced To Pay Five Years' Advance Income Tax.

Rotterdam, Holland. — Much light is thrown upon the conditions which prevail in Germany by the story related by a prominent Hollander upon the occasion of his recent return from that country. His wife is a German, and he has considerable interests in Germany, where he remained during the war. Wishing to return to Holland, he was not permitted by the government to do so until he had paid five years' advance income tax, as a security that he would return, calculated on the average yearly income tax paid during the past five years. The advance income tax paid by this Hollander amounted to 270,000 marks.

Shoes, he says, are very dear in Germany, a pair that he bought for his wife costing him 500 marks. The government has placed a maximum price on foodstuffs. The large farms are controlled by the wealthy men of the country, and they have refused to sell their farm products at the maximum prices. Foodstuffs are now scarcer than during the war. The meat obtainable has to be scraped before using, because it is so bad. Fresh meat is difficult to get, and a great amount of salt meat is used. A cake of chocolate, which could be bought in Holland for 10 cents, would sell for 15 marks in Germany.

Increase in Use of Opiates.

The increase in the consumption of opiates in Canada last year was so marked that the Government has considered it necessary to impose restrictions on such imports. They may now be brought in only by license. In 1918 a total of 12,471 pounds of crude opium was imported, while in the fiscal year ended March 31 of this year it had jumped to the total of 34,263 pounds. Of powdered opium, 51 pounds was imported in 1918 and 123 in 1919. The value of the crude opium brought in 1918 was $148,346, in the recent fiscal year it was $534,555. Much the same situation obtains in regard to cocaine and morphine.

Expelled Jews Helped Industries

Russia Provided Poland With Human Factor of Great Importance.

An odd bit of commercial history comes to light with the granting of citizenship to Jews in Poland, and shows how Russia, in expelling the race from Moscow, provided Poland with a human factor of great importance in developing her own industrial resources. Politically Poland lay helpless in the grip of her powerful neighbor, resisting as best she might that neighbor's determination to destroy the last vestige of Polish national existence. Industrially, on the other hand, her coal and iron ore districts had developed Polish centers of manufacture superior to those of Russia, but dependent for success on the sale of their products in Russian markets. Jews came from Moscow who were familiar with Russian trade conditions, had already established personal trade relations with Russian cities, and were admirably fitted to develop a commercial program between the two countries. These men became the natural intermediaries between Poles and Russians in business, and their expulsion from Russia is doubtless one reason for the prosperity of Polish industries at Lodz, Warsaw and Petrokow.—Christian Science Monitor.

German Trade Disappointing

Unsafe To Dispatch Merchandise Without Payment in Cash.

London. — The wireless press Copenhagen correspondent writes that great hopes have been entertained in many quarters in Denmark since the armistice of a new period of enrichment through the resumption of trade with Germany, but that it is becoming evident that these hopes must be disappointed.

It is now realized that owing to Germany's critical financial position, it is highly unsafe to dispatch large quantities of merchandise to that country without payment in cash, and as this condition is rarely complied with very little business is being done. Meanwhile great satisfaction is expressed in Danish newspapers with the reported intention to establish a French Chamber of Commerce at Copenhagen.

Lecturer Tells How To Succeed As a Farmer.

A young man approached a lecturer who had been relating some interesting stories about romance. "How do you succeed as a farmer?" "That in your opinion is the first thing I must do so that I may be more than an ordinary hand-to-mouth farm owner?" he inquired. "Fall in love," answered the lecturer.

"What?" gasped the young man. "I mean just that," the lecturer went on. "Love must precede everything else. You must fall in love with farm work—actually fall in love head-over-heels. It must be more than mere liking. You must think—"

The lecturer paused. "Do you love a girl?" he asked suddenly.

Realizing that the lecturer was not asking out of idle curiosity or with a desire to be impertinent, the young man blushed and answered, "I do."

"Well," the speaker went on. "I don't have to talk to you. You know what I mean if you really love the girl. That means you are not only ready but eager to give her your best—all you have. You think of her by day and night. You want to make her life richer. You desire to use all your mental and physical and moral strength in her service. You want to live your life to the fullest and best so that you can help her. That's what you have to do with your farm."

She had thought she could say yes or no to any question. He could ask, but as he poured forth these plain passionate words she found herself enveloped in a flame that found no expression in speech. She had no words. She was glad when he went on.

"I know I'm only a boy, an' you're only a girl. That's why I don't ask no pledge. I leave you free, only I want you to stay free until I have my chance. Will you promise that?"

She tried to pull herself together.
"You know I've had a good time with you, Dave," she said, "and I've gone with you everywhere, like I wouldn't have gone with any other boy I ever knew, and I've talked and let you talk about things I never talked about before, and I believe you're true and clean, and—and—"

"Yes," he said. "What's your answer?"

"I know you're true and clean," she repeated. "Come to me—like that—when I'm a woman and you're a man, and then—then we'll know."

He was tall and straight, and his shadow fell across her face, as though even the moon must not see.
"Reenie," he said, "kiss me."

For one moment she thought of her mother. She knew she stood at the parting of the ways; that all life for her was being moulded in that moment. Then she put both her arms about his neck and drew his lips to hers.

CHAPTER FOUR.

Dave's opportunity came sooner than he expected. After the departure of the Hardys things at the old ranch were, as both father and son had predicted, very different. They found themselves on a sort of good behaviour; a behaviour which, un-happily, excited in each other grave suspicions as to purpose. Between these two men rude courtesies, or considerations of any kind had been so long forgotten that attempts to reintroduce them resulted in a sort of estrangement more dangerous than the old open hostility. The tension steadily increased, and both looked forward to the moment when something must give way.

For several weeks the old man remained entirely sober, but the call of the appetite in him grew more and more insistent as the days went by,
and at last came the morning when Dave awoke to find him gone. He needed no second guess; the craving had become irresistible and his father had ridden to town for the means to satisfy it. The passing days did not bring his return, but this occasioned no anxiety to Dave. In the course of a carouse his father frequently remained away for weeks at a stretch, and at such times it was Dave's custom to visit the boys on a ranch a dozen miles over the foothills to the southward. These boys had a sister, and what was more natural than that Dave should drown his loneliness in such company?

But this time he did not ride southward over the hills. He moped around the ranch buildings, sat moodily by the little stream, casting pebbles in the water, or rode over the old trails on which she had so often been his companion. The season was bright with all the glory of the foothill September; the silver dome of heaven, cloudless morning and noon, ripened with the dying day into seas of gold on which floated cloud-islands of purple and amethyst, and through the immeasurable silence of the night moon and stars bathed the deep valleys in celestial effulgence. But in the heart of the boy was neither sun, nor moon, nor stars, but only the black gulfs of loneliness from which his light had gone out.

Then the old man's horse came home. Dave saw it coming up the trail, not running wildly, but with nervous gallop and many sidelong turnings of the head. As the boy watched he found a strange emptiness possess him; his body seemed a phantom on which his head hung over-heavy. He spoke to the horse, which pulled up, snorting, before him; noted the wet neck and flanks, and at last the broken stirrup. Then, slowly and methodically, and still with that strange sensation of emptiness, he saddled his own horse and set out on the search.

After the last rites had been paid to the old rancher Dave set about at once to wind up his affairs, and it was not until then that he discovered how deeply his father had been involved. The selling of the cattle and the various effects realized only enough to discharge the liabilities, and when this had been done Dave found himself with a considerable area of unmarketable land, a considerable bundle of paid bills, and his horse, saddle and revolver. He rode his horse to town, carrying a few articles of wear with him. It was only after a stiff fight he could bring himself to part with his one companion. The last miles into town were ridden very slowly, with the boy frequently leaning forward and stroking the horse's neck and ears.

"Tough doin's, ol' Slop-eye," he would say. "Tough doin's. But it's got to be done. I can't keep you in town; 't ain't like out on the old ranch. An' I got a bigger job now than ever you an' me stood in on,
an' we've stood in on some big ones, too, ain't we? But that's gone an' done; that old life's all busted, all of a sudden, like a bottle. Busted an' run out. I got a big job on now, an' you can't take no part. You jus' got to get out. You're done, see?"

He sold horse and saddle for sixty dollars and took a room at a cheap hotel until he should find work and still cheaper lodgings.

In the evening he walked through the streets of the little cow-town.
It was not altogether new to him;
he had frequently visited it for business or pleasure, but he had never felt the sense of strangeness which oppressed him this night. In the past he had always been in the town as a visitor; his roots were still in the ranch; he could afford to notice the ways of the town, and smile to himself a whimsical smile and go on.
But now he was throwing in his lot with the town; he was going to be one of it, and it stretched no arms of welcome to him. It snubbed him with its indifference. He became aware that he was very lonely. He became aware that the gathering twilight in the great hills had never seemed so vague and empty as the dusk of this strange town. He realized that he had but one friend in the world; but one, and of her he knew not so much as her address.

He began to wonder whether he really had a friend at all; whether the girl would not discard him when he was of no further use just as he had discarded his faithful old horse.
Tears of loneliness and remorse gathered in his eyes, and a mist not of the twilight blurred the street lamps now glimmering from their poles. He felt that he had treated the horse very shabbily indeed. He wanted old Slop-eye back again. He suddenly wanted him with a terrific longing; wanted him more than anything else in the world. For a moment he forgot the girl, and all his homesickness centred about the beast which had been so long his companion and servant and friend.

"I'll buy him back in the mornin', I will, sure as hell," he said in a sudden gust of emotion. "We got to stick together. I didn't play fair with him, but I'll buy him back.
Perhaps I can get a job for him, too, pullin' a light wagon, or somethin'."

The resolution to "play fair" with Slop-eye gradually restored his cheerfulness, and he walked slowly back to the hotel, looking in at many window displays as he went on. Half shyly he paused before a window of women's wear; fine, filmy things, soft and elusive, and, he supposed, very expensive. He wondered if Reenie bought clothes like that to wear in her city home. And then he began to look for a brown sweater, and to move from window to window. And presently he found himself at his hotel.

The men's sitting room now presented a much more animated picture than when he had registered earlier in the evening. It was filled with ranchers, cowboys, and cattlemen of all degree; breeders, buyers, traders, owners and wage-earners, with a sprinkling of townspeople and others not directly engaged in some phase of the cattle business. The room was strong with smoke and language and expectation and goodfellowship, to which the maul-lin carousal of the line-up at the bar furnished appropriate accompaniment. Through the smoke he could see another room farther back, in which were a number of pool tables; loud voices and loud laughter and occasional awe-inspiring rips of profanity betokened deep interest in the game, and he allowed himself to drift in that direction. Soon he was in a group watching a gaudily dressed individual doing a sort of sleight-of-hand trick with three cards on a table.

"Smooth guy that," said some one at his side. The remark was evidently intended for Dave, and he turned toward the speaker. He was a man somewhat smaller than Dave; two or three years older; well dressed in town clothes; with a rather puffy face and a gold-filled tooth from which a corner had been broken as though to accommodate the cigarette which hung there. He blew a slow double stream of smoke from his nostrils and repeated, "Smooth guy that."

"Yes," said Dave. Then, as it was apparent the stranger was inclined to be friendly, he continued, "What's the idea?"

The stranger nudged him gently.
"Come out of the bunch," he said, in a low voice. When they had moved a little apart he went on, in a confidential tone: "He has a little trick with three cards, that brings him in the easy coin. He's smooth as grease, but the thing's simple. Oh, it's awful simple. It's out of date with the circuses in the States—that was where I got wise to it—but it seems to get 'em here. Now you watch him for a minute," and they watched through an opening in the crowd at his table. The player held three cards; two red ones and a black. He passed them about rapidly over the table, occasionally turning his hand sideways so that the on-lookers could see the position of the cards. Then he suddenly threw them, face down, on the table, each card by itself.

"The trick is to locate the black card," Dave's companion explained.
"It's easy enough if you just keep your eye on the card; but the trouble with these rubes is they name the card and then start to get out their money, and while they're fumbling for it he makes a change so quick they never see it. There's just one way to beat him. Get up close, but don't say you're going to play; just pretend you're getting interested.
Then when you're dead sure of a card, crack your fist down on it.
Glue yourself right to it, and get out your money with the other hand.
When he sees you do that he'll try to bluff you; say you ain't in on it, but you just tell him that don't go, this is an open game and he's got to come through, and the crowd'll back you up. I stuck him one—a whole hundred first crack—and then he barred me. Watch him."

Prince of Wales Welcomed.

St. Johns, Nfld. — The Prince of Wales was accorded a veritable tumult of enthusiastic reception upon his arrival here. Everywhere cheering crowds greeted him and he was welcomed by provincial and city officials at every turn from the waterfront to the parliament building.
A formal luncheon was tendered him by the governor, at the close of which a toast to his health brought from him a response couched in words of warm praise for the war work of Newfoundlanders at home, on the seas and on the battlefields of Europe.

Timothy Seed A Remunerative Crop

Great Success in Growing Timothy Seed on Irrigated Farm.

James McD. Davidson, of Coaldale, Alberta, whose Hereford cattle are becoming famous in Southern Alberta, has had great success in growing timothy seed on his irrigated farm at Coaldale, Alberta. This year he has three hundred acres of this grass in crop. Last year he obtained 60,000 pounds of re-cleaned seed from this area, while in the previous years his yields were 90,000 pounds in 1917, 70,000 pounds in 1916, with an average of from 40,000 to 50,000 pounds during the previous six years.

Experts say that Southern Alberta produces as good seed as can be grown anywhere else on the continent. But in addition to the valuable seed there is the hay. In 1917 the hay left over after the seed had been saved could have been sold for $5,000 and that in 1918 for $4,000. This was, however, used for Mr. Davidson's own stock.

Love For Good Stock

Theoretical Training and Practical Experience Are Necessary For Best Success.

The two most valuable assets for the amateur stockman to possess in order to become a successful livestock breeder are: First, an interest and incentive for raising good stock, and second, practical experience supplemented with a thorough technical knowledge of selecting, feeding, judging, and breeding, according to J. T. Tingle, of the Colorado Agricultural College, who says: "Most of our greatest livestock breeders of today entered their profession on account of their love for good stock and their practical experience enabled them to make a success of the business."

"Both theoretical training and practical experience are necessary for the best success. Especially is this true at present—a time when feed, labor, and stock are high. There has never been a time when the livestock industry demanded a more thorough knowledge of proper feeding, breeding, handling, and selecting than at present."

"The objects sought through the boys' and girls' clubs include the above essentials for success and in addition they endeavor to teach the members that the work is enjoyable, profitable, instructive and offers an incentive for securing an agricultural education. Boys as well as men are looking for practical training and there is no better way for them to secure it than through the clubs."

"Every farmer and stockman should be more than anxious for his son to get into some kind of livestock club. He should not only advise his boy to enter a club but should encourage and urge others to join by offering prizes and stock at reasonable prices in order to promote the work and further the "Better livestock" movement. Pure-bred breeders can well afford to sell club members stock at reduced prices in order to build up an interest in these young stockmen for raising registered stock. Increased interest means greater demand for pure-breds and the better the demand the better will be the future sales."

Ancient Sword Presented To King

Son and Grandson of Chief of Bah-rein Conveyed Tokens.

London. — A picturesque scene was witnessed at Buckingham Palace when the son and grandson of the ruling chief of Bahrain presented ancient swords to the King and conveyed from their chief tokens of esteem, friendship and congratulations on his recent victory. Bahrain, which is now under British protection, is situated halfway up the Persian Gulf, and the chief and his people were absolutely loyal during the war. The Sheikh who visited the King is an enlightened and business-like individual through whom most of the British dealings with his father are transacted.

Jap Arsenal Workers May Strike.

Tokio. — A committee representing 24,000 workmen in the military arsenals of Tokio petitioned the government for an increase in wages ranging from 20 to 50 per cent. If their demands are not granted, it was stated that a strike would be called.
As four thousand persons were leaving the arsenals the guards closed the gates because the men had not formed in line as usual. The workmen forced the gates and in the clash fifteen persons were injured.

British Merchants In Trade Campaign

Necessary in Interests of Country to Develop Its Export Trade.

The first real hint of what the British Government's after-the-war policy is to be is contained in a Board of Trade appeal for a big campaign by British merchants to capture the markets of Central Europe. Now that the blockade has been raised, the board points out, these markets have been opened to the world and it may be expected that there will be a considerable demand in Germany for all kinds of goods.

"It is no part of the policy of His Majesty's Government to discourage British traders from competing in this market," the appeal says.

"It is necessary in the interests of this country to develop its export trade to the fullest possible extent and in every direction, and it is very desirable that British traders should at once make every effort to secure proper footing in Central Europe."

An official of the National Union of Manufacturers stated in an interview: "The decision raises a very important question which that body has already gone into without finding a satisfactory answer. That question is, how is Germany going to be supplied? She can only pay in gold, in securities or manufactured goods. He said the first two are limited and heavily mortgaged and the only real currency for imports we cannot accept.
The decision has evidently been come to in view of some of our allies' determination to trade with Germany irrespective of our own wishes and inclinations."

"Another point is whether in our efforts to get the trade of Central Europe we are not to give priority to the requirements of some of our Allies who are greatly in need of manufactured articles. If we do not neglect those Allies the Central European markets will be captured before we are ready for the assault. A big effort to increase exports to Germany may eventually raise the cost of living further in Britain unless production here is greatly increased and Germany gets our surplus."

The whole situation will not be clear until the Government makes up its mind what is to be the nation's policy with regard to the imports into England from the rest of the world."

Patriotic Canada

Has Asked for Comparatively Little Financial Help.

A striking feature of the statement of the war debt of Canada is the large amount held by Canadians.
Other countries have been asked by the Dominion for comparatively little in the way of financing. That Canada will pay the interest and principal of her indebtedness is not doubted. The country's natural resources as yet are only in the first stages of development. Canada has forests, fisheries, minerals and immense areas of productive land, but the population is small and prosperity and growth are largely dependent upon immigration.
The world is in need of food supplies, and while the United States at present is in the best position for sending commodities abroad, it is evident that Canada is destined to be an important factor in the problem of feeding the nations whose fields have been devastated in the last five destructive years.—Providence Journal.

Prisoners Earning Four Cents An Hour

Germans Are Described As Good Workers Along Agricultural Lines.

British plans for repatriation of German prisoners of war are complete, according to a special despatch from London. These plans, of course, are subject to arrangements to be made by the joint prisoners' commission to meet in Paris.

Up to July 23, prisoners held in Great Britain numbered 84,604. This number included 170 army airmen, 2,908 sailors, 14 naval airmen and 4,206 civilian aliens. The majority of the sick and badly wounded and those suffering from shell-shock have already been sent home.

Several boatloads containing the last of the cases have recently been cleared. Among those on board were Capt. Karl von Mueller, commander of the cruiser Emden; Admiral von Reuter, who was held prisoner to answer for the sinking of the German fleet at Scapa Flow, and a son of Admiral von Tirpitz.

The prisoners are scattered throughout the country with the exception of Ireland. They are kept in internment and work camps. Twenty-six thousand of them are now engaged in agricultural pursuits, and 7,000 are employed by the military authorities, filling trenches mainly on the east coast.

They are paid up to two-pence an hour, the same as British soldiers.
The authorities are experiencing no trouble with the Germans, and they are described as good workers, especially along agricultural lines. A few escapes have been reported, but probably only half a dozen succeeded in getting out of the country.

There are no members of Zeppelin crews among the hostages, as they were all repatriated through exchanges during the war.

French Restoring Railways

About 10 Per Cent. Still Remain To Be Rebuilt.

Paris. — The minister of public works has sent a report to the president of the republic on the work of reconstruction now being carried on in the devastated regions, and the progress made. The report deals chiefly with railroads, highways, and other means of communication in the northern and eastern departments.
In this document it is shown that only twenty-two kilometres of permanent way still require to be put into shape out of a total of 1,500 kilometres, or more than 1,000 miles, completely useless for traffic at the time of the armistice. On the eastern railway system about 10 per cent. of the railway lines destroyed still remain to be rebuilt. The repair and even remaking of the highways and local roads has needed more than 500,000 tons of material. Seven thousand kilometres of roads are completely restored. There still remain 33,000 kilometres of roads to repair.

The inland waterways for navigation employ 20,000 workmen, and 350 kilometres of canals have been restored to water traffic. There is twice that amount to do still. Communication by water is now open between Lille, Bethune, Calais, Dunkirk, Paris, and the Canal of Sambre and Meuse, Paris and St. Quentin, Paris and Reims, and so on. In September barges will be able to sail between Paris and Belgium.

Crew of Bremen Return.

Berlin. — The Vossische Zeitung says that the entire crew of the German submarine Bremen, which disappeared three years ago, has arrived at Bremen. Great Britain kept the men prisoners and completely shut them off from the world in order to keep the whereabouts of the vessel a secret, the newspaper adds.

General Currie Talked To British

Want Greater Intimacy Between People of Motherland and Colonies.

Liverpool. — Interviewed by a Reuter correspondent while he was embarking on the Caronia to sail for Canada, General Currie, commander of the Canadian corps in France, said:

"I don't know whether we like you better than before the war, but we understand you better. I think we respect each other more, but I do not think we like each other as well as we would like to. We must be taken each other into the family as it were."

"We want a greater intimacy and understanding between the people of the motherland and colonies. I am glad to know Canadian soldiers are taking home wives from this country.
In my opinion there are too many people living in English cities."

GIRLS! LEMON JUICE IS A SKIN WHITENER

How to Make a Creamy Beauty Lotion for a Few Cents

The juice of two fresh lemons strained into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white makes a whole quart pint of the most remarkable lemon skin beautifier at about the cost one must pay for a small jar of the ordinary cold cream.
Care should be taken to strain the lemon juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan and is the ideal skin softener, whitener and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any drug store and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands.

Charges Conspiracy

Sir John Hunter Says Contractor Padded Pay Roll.

London. — Sir John Hunter, director of factory construction and iron and steel production under the ministry of munitions, in the course of testimony before an investigating committee on national expenditures, said that in the erection of works for the air ministry, no man employed had earned the money he received.

These men numbered 700,000. Sir John declared, and in some cases wages were drawn regularly and charged to the government for men who did not exist. Sir John added that he had found a conspiracy of government men and contractors saying some of them were arrested but the crown declined to prosecute them.

Solving British Labor Problems

London. — With the feature of direct action by the triple alliance in balloting a strike removed, and the prospect of a speedy resumption of work in the Yorkshire coalfields, the labor situation is distinctly improved. According to George Nicol Barnes, the Labor representative in the war cabinet, the labor situation gradually is becoming more normal and the nation is to be congratulated in having gone thus far along the troublous road. Unemployment, Mr. Barnes added, was down to half the figure of last May, and the workers generally were showing a desire to avoid extreme and illegal measures to obtain their desires. Premier Lloyd George is said to be particularly pleased with the way things are going, and his promised statement to parliament, defining the government's trade policy, is being awaited with great interest.

It is asserted that Lloyd George will undertake that the admiralty, like the war office, shall make sweeping reductions in its estimates. The minister of labor announces that a proposal is being considered in the interest of the general community, providing for the introduction of legislation making strikes and lockouts illegal unless one week's notice in writing is given to enable an enquiry into the situation causing discord and an attempt at its settlement. This program, it is said, will be strongly resented by a large portion of the laborers. The Yorkshire miners are not all willing to resume work. Ten thousand men in the Pontefract district voted against resuming work, and it is said that in other districts the miners have not yet reached a decision as to whether they will return to their labors.

Taking Some Action In U. S.

Grocer Fined $500 For Selling Sugar At 15 Cents Per Pound.

Washington. — Important new developments in the government's fight to reduce the high cost of living have now been made public.

One of the most interesting was the announcement by Attorney-General Palmer that the first federal conviction for profiteering had been obtained. District Attorney Lucey telegraphed from Binghamton, N.Y., that a retail grocer had been fined $500 for selling sugar at 15 cents a pound. No details were given and the law under which the case was brought was not known here.

"A few good cases of profiteering in each state will settle that trouble," Mr. Palmer remarked. In order to bring to book persons guilty of raising prices exorbitantly or hoarding food to advance prices, Mr. Palmer submitted to the agricultural committees of congress a bill extending its provisions to and containers of foods and feeds, and providing a penalty of $5,000 fine or two years' imprisonment or both for violation of the law.

Use Secret Service.

Washington. — President Wilson has asked congress for authority to use the secret service in running down profiteers and food hoarders.

To Aid Admiral Kolchak

Material Is Being Rushed to Vladivostok By the United States.

Washington. — Material aid for Admiral Kolchak's retreating army in Siberia is being rushed to Vladivostok by the United States. It was said officially, that 45,000 rifles and several million rounds of ammunition already had been sent from San Francisco, and that additional equipment would go forward this week on an army transport.

The amount of material ordered to Siberia was not disclosed but was said to be "very large" and to include motor vehicles and medical supplies, as well as rifles and ammunition.

The original consignment was materially increased after the recent reverse of Kolchak's army, it was said.

Feeding 20,000 Children.

Paris. — The American relief administration began the task of feeding 20,000 children in Budapest as part of its plan to give food to the children of Central Europe, it was announced. It was said this did not involve a general relaxation of the food blockade against Hungary.

A Vienna despatch received from London announced the Allies had lifted the blockade against Hungary, but there has been no formal announcement of this by the supreme council.

Strike Leaders Are Refused Bail

Judge Says They Used Liberty to Add to Industrial Unrest.

Winnipeg. — Bail was refused the eight Winnipeg strike leaders by Mr. Justice J. D. Cameron, of the court of appeal. The accused, W. M. Ivins, R. B. Russell, John Queen, A. A. Heaps, R. E. Bray, W. A. Pritchard, R. J. Johns and Geo. Armstrong, were accordingly taken into custody by the Royal Northwest Mounted Police and escorted to provincial jail, where they will remain until they appear for trial at the October assizes, unless defence counsel can obtain their freedom from one of the judges of the higher courts.

Mr. Justice Cameron refused to grant bail on the ground that the eight leaders had broken their promises when released on bail the first time to abstain from taking an active part in labor unrest; that they had by public speeches and other activities carried on a campaign of an indiscreet nature. He did not feel like taking the responsibility of admitting them to bail.

E. J. McMurray had pointed out that these public utterances had been made in order to raise the necessary funds for defence. He does not despair of getting bail for his clients, but says that success is doubtful.

One Big Union Declared Illegal

Mine Officials and Fuel Commissioner in Alberta Issued Statement.

Calgary. — The One Big Union is held to be illegal under the Criminal Code of Canada, which holds it to be an offence to support any movement which has for its object the overthrow of constituted authority.

This statement has been issued by the mine operators, the officials of District 18 of the Mine Workers, and the fuel commissioner, Armstrong. The commissioner has issued orders for sixteen mines to open in the district, and these will be ready to accept for work, men who are willing to come under the international authority. The O. B. U. will not be tolerated or recognized.

It is said that Armstrong expressed the hope that all the mines in the district will be working under international jurisdiction very shortly.

To Beautify Prairies

Development of Plants Peculiarly Suited to the Prairie Lands of Canada.

Winnipeg. — Rough outlines of a hundred-year program of work to be undertaken by the association were discussed by the Great Plains horticulturists gathered in convention here. It is believed that definite action will be taken before the meeting disperses. The campaign to be started involves development of many plants peculiarly suited to the prairie lands of Canada and the United States.

It was explained that the association was international in its scope, and comprised in its membership college professors, government investigators and other specialists in horticulture from the regions of the Great Plains.

Serbia A Country Of Orphans

Invasion Carried Half a Million Children From Parents.

Belgrade. — The war has made Serbia a country of orphans. There are 200,000 who lost both their parents, and 300,000 more who lost one parent, according to statistics compiled by Red Cross workers from records in the Serbian educational department. Some towns of 10,000 inhabitants have between 2,000 and 3,000 orphans.

The occupation of Serbia for three years by the enemy, and the subsequent deportations, combined with the great retreat in 1915, which carried half a million children in its wake, separated numberless children from their parents.

Carry Mails By Airplane.

Winnipeg. — The Canadian mails will be carried exclusively by airplane in the near future, according to Major John Inwood, former secretary of the Aero Club of Canada, who is on a visit here. He added that the Canadian Pacific railway applied for an extension of their charter to allow the use of airplanes for mail carrying.

Drought and Frost Insurance.

Calgary. — A proposition for insurance of farmers against drought and frost is now being considered by the Alberta Association of Municipal Districts.

Allied Success In North Russia

Good News of Contest With the Bolsheviks on Russian Front.

London. — Six Bolshevik battalions were destroyed in a successful Anglo-Russian attack on the Dvina river on August 10, the war office has announced. More than 1,000 prisoners, 12 field guns and many machine guns were captured. The Anglo-Russian front on the Dvina was pushed forward 12 miles. The official statement reads:

"In North Russia, Anglo-Russian troops, on August 10, attacked the Bolshevik forces on the Dvina with great success. All the objectives were gained. Six enemy battalions were destroyed, the troops being either killed, captured or dispersed. More than 1,000 prisoners, 12 field guns and many machine guns were captured. Our line on the Dvina was advanced 12 miles to Thadrov and Borok."

Curb Profiteering In Britain

Amendment Passed British House Empowering the Board of Trade To Fix Prices.

London. — The House of commons, after heated debate, adopted an amendment to the profiteering bill, empowering the board of trade, after an investigation, to fix wholesale and retail prices. The vote was 132 to 95.

The amendment was denounced, among others, by Lord Robert Cecil, former minister of war trade, who expressed amazement that the government should accept an amendment destroying the whole basis of the bill and revolutionizing the trade of the country. Sir Donald Maclean, a Liberal member, also denounced the amendment, characterizing it as "rank socialism of the most muddled kind."

In the course of the discussion on the bill, Sir Auckland Geddes, minister for national service and reconstruction, indicated that the bill would empower the board of trade to fix prices in a case where the community was likely to be led, by any combination, national or international, for the purpose of increasing prices. An amendment seeking to include profiteering in rentals within the scope of the bill was rejected.

Ferdinand's Millions

Seizure of Securities Will Not Altogether Ruin the Ex-Monarch.

Geneva. — The seizure in England of securities belonging to former King Ferdinand of Bulgaria, valued at $2,000,000, will not altogether ruin the ex-monarch, according to reliable information obtained here.

It is said that Ferdinand toward the end of 1914 took the precaution of placing his fortune abroad, mostly in neutral countries. Swiss banks, for instance, are said to hold stocks and bonds belonging to Ferdinand, valued at nearly a million pounds sterling.

Large sums were also placed in Hungary where Ferdinand is now a fugitive with his family.

To Prosecute Bela Kun.

Copenhagen. — The Hungarian public prosecutor has issued an announcement that proceedings will be begun against all individuals charged with crimes during the Bela Kun dictatorship, and that steps have already been taken for their arrest and extradition, according to advices from Budapest.

Another announcement says that it is intended to prosecute Bela Kun and his associates for murder, robbery and forgery.

To Combat High Cost of Living.

Winnipeg. — Concerted action by all military and labor organizations in a fight for the reduction of the high cost of living was suggested in a letter from the Order of Railway Conductors' division 604, considered at a meeting of the Army and Navy Veterans' association executive. The suggestion was unanimously adopted, and a committee was appointed to co-operate.

Prince's Visit to U. S. Is Uncertain.

Ottawa. — Nothing is known as yet at the capital as to when the Prince of Wales is likely to visit the United States or the duration of his stay in that country. No decision will be reached in regard to the matter until later, but it is certain that the prince cannot leave Canada until the conclusion of his Canadian tour.

Rome. — The Italian troops attached to the allied expeditionary force in northern Russia left Murmansk on August 9. The Italian military commission accompanied the troops.

British Ambassador To U. S.

Viscount Grey Has Accepted the New Post Temporarily.

London. — Viscount Grey, former British secretary of state for foreign affairs, has agreed to represent the British government at Washington, pending the appointment of a permanent ambassador.

Viscount Grey of Falloden (Sir Edward Grey) comes to the United States to represent the British government after a brilliant career as head of the British foreign office. For eleven years, momentous in the political affairs of Europe, he was secretary of state for foreign affairs, from December 11, 1905, to December 11, 1916. Owing to several occasions during that period, it was the initiative of Sir Edward Grey that caused the gathering clouds of war to disappear. It was he who made the last effort to prevent the great European war when he urged the ambassadors of the leading powers to meet and discuss the situation in an attempt to put off hostilities. His effort failed through the attitude of the German government and the German emperor.

Gladstone, under whom Sir Edward served in his younger days, described him thus:

"I never knew in a man such aptitude for political life and such disinclination for it."

Since his retirement from the foreign office, Viscount Grey has been living in retirement in Northumberland. The new ambassador's eyes began to trouble him in 1918 and at one time it was reported he was totally blind. This report was exaggerated, but the viscount has difficulty in reading, although his eye trouble has improved somewhat.

General Currie Is Defended

Officer Says Criticism for Canadian Losses at Passchendaele Not Warranted.

Kingston, Ont. — Speaking at the banquet tendered to the visiting delegates to the convention of Union of Canadian Municipalities, General Sir Archibald MacDonell, the new commandant of the Royal Military College, defended General Sir Arthur Currie from the criticism levelled at him because of the losses at Passchendaele.

General MacDonell, "the man who took Hill 70," said he was present when Sir Douglas Haig told General Currie to take Passchendaele, and the Canadians took it, after the Australians, New Zealanders and Britishers had failed.

Referring to the Canadian casualties, the speaker said, according to figures recently published, the Canadians suffered the lowest percentage of losses and made the highest percentage of gains.

Another speaker was Mayor Harry Lethbridge, who declared for a middle course on the liquor question, neither too wet nor too dry.

Must Leave Dominion

Schöppelrei Ordered Deported By the Immigration Board of Inquiry.

Winnipeg. — Oscar Schöppelrei, branded as an undesirable alien, and ordered deported by the immigration board of inquiry, must leave Canada. The Manitoba court of appeal refused to grant an application made by counsel in Schöppelrei's behalf that the deportation order be annulled and all proceedings quashed.

The high court in its written judgment found that the order for Schöppelrei's deportation was based on two grounds: first, that he had come into the country by misrepresentation; and secondly, that he had refused to answer certain questions put to him by officials. Their lordships pointed out that under section 23 of the immigration act they had no jurisdiction to interfere.

Six Months On Ice Floe.

Edmonton. — Six months adrift on an ice floe in the Arctic sea, cut off from all civilization by miles of deep water, such was the experience of Storker T. Storkersen who arrived in the city last night from the great northern wastes. Observations of great scientific value were made while the party was on the ice floe, but these will not be fully discussed until Storkersen meets his chief, Steffansen in Banff next Saturday and prepares his full report.

Conference of Brewers.

Atlantic City, N. J. — Believing that a revolution of feeling against prohibition can be concentrated for the repeal of the liquor statutes, the brewers of the nation have called a big conference here for September 28. The meeting will continue a week.

Harvesters Coming From The East

Henry Ford Won Verdict

Is Awarded Six Cents Damages Against the Chicago Tribune.

Mount Clemens, Mich. — A jury awarded Henry Ford six cents damages against the Chicago Tribune for calling him an anarchist.

Orvy Hulett, foreman of the jury, said that they took "nine ballots that I can remember," the first one, according to Leonard Mensel, another juror, standing 8 to 4 in favor of awarding Mr. Ford some damages.

"Does the award of six cents above express the feelings of the jury as to the case?" a reporter asked Mr. Hulett.

"It just about does. That expresses our judgment." Attorney Alfred J. Murphy, for Mr. Ford, said: "The important issue in the case has been determined favorably to the plaintiff. He has been vindicated."

"Money damages were entirely subordinate and were not sought by Mr. Ford. He stands not only vindicated but his attitude as an American citizen has been justified after a trial which raised every issue against him which ingenuity and research could present. His friends are entirely satisfied."

Weymouth Kirkland, one of the counsel for the Tribune, said: "We consider it a victory for the reason that Attorney Alfred Lucking, in closing for Mr. Ford, stated that anything less than substantial damages would be a defeat for his client."

Funeral Of Late

Andrew Carnegie

Service Was As Simple As Were the Tastes and Habits of the Man in Life.

Lennox, Mass. — The funeral of Andrew Carnegie was held at Shadow Brook, his summer home in the Berkshires. There was no eulogy and there were no pall bearers. The service was as simple as were the tastes and habits of the man in life. Fully one half of the sixty persons present were members of the household. The others were intimates of the family.

The ritual of the Presbyterian church was used by the officiating clergyman, Dr. W. M. Pierson Merrill of the Brick Presbyterian church, Fifth avenue, New York.

A mixed quartet from this church sang the three hymns which have been favorites of the philanthropist and former iron master.

Interment was made in a lot chosen by Mr. Carnegie some years ago at Sleepy Hollow, near Tarrytown, N.Y.

"Bavarian Free State."

Copenhagen. — A despatch from Bamberg, under date of Tuesday, says that the Bavarian diet has adopted a constitution for the "Bavarian free state." There were three dissenting votes. A Socialist amendment to the constitution, abolishing all titles of nobility, was rejected.

Poverty is no disgrace, but it's a mighty good excuse for heading off a borrower.

Board To Deal With High Cost Of Living

Ottawa. — The Canadian board of commerce has been officially constituted, with Judge H. A. Robson, of Winnipeg, as chairman, and W. F. O'Connor, K.C., former cost of living commissioner, as second member, and these two gentlemen have had a conference with the government and have already started work. Judge Robson has arrived in Ottawa and shortly afterward met members of the government. The third member of the board, it is expected, will be named within a couple of days.

The board will act under the Combines and Fair Prices act and is given power to institute investigations on its own motion or at the request of ministers or other responsible persons bringing matters to the notice of the board.

When seen by the Canadian Press, limited, Judge Robson was emphatic in his statement that there would be no fuss and formalities attached to the working of the board. "This is to be a people's court," he declared, "and to be so it must be easy to approach. Any bona fide citizen who

Winnipeg. — Rush of men from the east for the harvest fields of the west has started in earnest. Eighteen thousand have been asked for by the farmers and 7,000 of them had reached the city, which is the chief distributing centre. Over 6,000 traveled by the Canadian Pacific railway. The remainder came on the Canadian National, reaching the Union depot Thursday evening. Over 2,000 are expected at the Union depot Friday, while the Canadian Pacific is also running several trains.

Special arrangements had been made by the railway companies for the speedy despatch of the excursionists to their various destinations. Two long trains, heavily loaded with the harvest help, were sent west during the day, one in the morning and the other toward midnight, while a number of men left the city on local trains for points in Manitoba.

Officials of the Manitoba and Saskatchewan governments, detailed for the work of placing in positions the harvesters, had an extremely busy time of it, for they booked 2,400 men, one-half of this number being for farms in Manitoba and the other half for the harvest fields of Saskatchewan.

In the case of Manitoba the wages were announced as $4.50 a day for stocking and $5 for threshing, while for positions in Saskatchewan a straight $5 was offered.

Problems Of Two Countries

Pertinent Question Asked In British House of Commons Regarding U. S. Affairs.

London. — In the house of commons, the Hon. Walter E. Guinness, member for Suffolk, asked Andrew Bonar Law, the government leader, to give the day's discussion over to the present position of the black races, but his request was refused. The questioner responded by asking whether it would not be a graceful act of reciprocity to place at the disposal of the United States the benefit of British experience in governing negroes in return for the discussion of Irish affairs in the United States senate.

Captain William Wedgewood Benn, Liberal member for Leith, asked Mr. Bonar Law to do his best to prevent efforts to sow dissension between Great Britain and America by alleged humorous questions.

On a Little Visit.

Berlin. — With the permission of the Dutch government, the former German crown prince has just spent several days with his wife and children at Soden, Prussia, and accompanied them part of the way back to Potsdam, according to the Lokal Anzeiger. The newspaper adds that Frederick William has now returned to Holland.

Hungary Seeks Loan.

Berlin. — A group of Hungarian banks will attempt to negotiate a loan for the new government at Budapest, according to despatches received here, the government having been unable to borrow the 1,500,000 crowns sought from Austro-Hungarian banks.

has a just cause for complaint will find us ready to give him a hearing and we will get down to work just as soon as possible."

The chairman of the new board stated, however, that the board would of necessity investigate the facts behind a complaint before holding sitings at any point. This was necessary, he stated, because the board has jurisdiction from coast to coast, and a complaint might take them from Halifax to Vancouver on a wild goose chase if it were only made because of some man's theory.

The two members of the new body had a long conference and will be together most of the time during the next few days drawing up simple rules of procedure and getting together the necessary small staff and office organization for their work. Judge Robson expects to return to Winnipeg within a short time to finish his work as chairman of the royal commission investigating the recent strike disorders there, but will be back in Ottawa again within a very short time.

Dresden's Crew Free

Chile Releases Men of Famous German Raider.

Santiago, Chile. — The Chilean government has set free the crews of the German cruiser Dresden and the German raider Adler, the members of which had been interned in this country for a long period, the men of the Dresden since 1915.

The German cruiser Dresden was sunk by British warships near Juan Fernandez Island on March 14, 1915. Three of the crew were killed and the remainder, about 300 in number, were transferred from Juan Fernandez Island, where they were first landed and interned at Valparaiso. The seadler, which had a sensational career as a sea raider in the South Atlantic early in 1917, was finally stranded on Mophea Island, in the Pacific, early in the fall of that year. Her crew of 58 men reached the Easter Islands in a sloop and were brought to Valparaiso on March 4, 1918, being interned there by the Chilean government.

Will Start Indians' Home

Port Arthur, Ont. — A supervised home for old destitute and sick Indians is being established by the Dominion government on the reserve at Grand Bay, south-west shore of Lake Nipigon. The home is the result of recommendations by Indian Agent Brown, who has found it a great necessity, especially since the influenza epidemic, on account of the inability of the Indians to care for themselves under attacks of tuberculosis.

The good effects of the pills will be almost immediately evident.

Berlin. — Archduke Joseph, head of the new Hungarian government, has issued a proclamation in which he affirms that there will be no return to the monarchical system, according to the Tageblatt's correspondent at Budapest.

Previously the officers and students had proclaimed the archduke king and it was to offset this that he reiterated his loyalty to the republic.

Attempt To Seize Ship

Crews Placed Mine-Sweepers Abreast To Block Harbor.

Rotterdam, Holland. — News has been received at Rotterdam, from an officer of an American cargo ship, of an attempt by the German Bolsheviks to seize his ship while it was at Emden, Germany, on May 30. The crews of the government mine-sweepers, in an effort to aid the Bolsheviks, placed the mine-sweepers abreast to block the harbor, so that the cargo ship, which they wanted to seize, could not leave the port. The government finally succeeded in getting this ship out of the harbor. On the previous evening, after the foodstuff cargo from this ship had been placed in storage houses ashore, the Bolsheviks endeavored unsuccessfully to obtain possession of it. The same evening there was a good deal of shooting between the Bolsheviks and the government forces, and damage was done to buildings in the center of the city by the Bolsheviks. The government forces finally succeeded in getting affairs in hand.

DELICATE YOUNG GIRLS

Need New Red Blood to Give Them Health and Strength.

Does your daughter inherit a delicate organization from you? The anemia of young girls may be inherited, or it may be caused by bad air, unsuitable food, hasty and irregular eating, insufficient out-of-door exercise and not enough rest and sleep.

It comes on gradually, beginning with languor, indisposition to mental or bodily exertion, irritability and a feeling of fatigue. Later comes palpitation of the heart, headache, dizziness following a stooping position, frequent headaches and breathlessness. In a majority of cases constipation is present. There may be no great loss of flesh, but usually the complexion takes on a greenish-yellow pallor.

Cases of this kind, if neglected, become serious, but if taken in time there is no need to worry. The treatment is quite easy and simple. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which are free from any harmful or habit-forming drug, are just the tonic needed to remedy this wretched state of health. Though it is not noticeable, improvement in the blood is made rich and red, the color leaves the face, strength and activity gradually return and if the treatment is continued until the last symptom disappears, the danger of a relapse is very slight. If any symptom of anemia appears, prudence suggests that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills should be given at once, and the sooner they are taken the more speedily will the trouble be overcome. You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for 2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Minard's Liniment Co., Limited. — Gentlemen, — Ever since coming home from the Boer war I have been bothered with running fever sores on my legs. I tried many salves and liniments; also doctored continuously for the blood, but got no permanent relief, till last winter when my mother got me to try MINARD'S LINIMENT. The effect of which was almost magical. Two bottles completely cured me and I have worked every working day since.

Controller Will Not Give Way.

London. — There is apparently going to be a fight to a finish in the strike of the 200,000 Yorkshire miners. The coal controller told the men's leaders it was impossible to concede their demands. To do so, he said, would mean a strike in every coal field in the country for similar concessions.

No further conference with a view of arriving at a settlement have been arranged. It is believed the strikers' funds will only last another fortnight. Already a quarter of a million pounds sterling have been spent in strike pay.

Seventy-Five Per Cent. Wheat Cut.

Regina. — Harvesting is well advanced, according to reports received by the department of agriculture. Some districts report 90 per cent. of the wheat crop cut, while others estimate a third. It is estimated that 75 per cent. of the wheat crop of the province is cut, with 25 per cent. of the early sown oats. Threshing will be general before the end of the month.

Itched and Burned, Scarcely Slept. Cuticura Heals.

"Pimples affected my face. They were large and always festering, and they were scattered all over my face. They afterwards turned into scales and when they fell off they left big marks until my face was disfigured. They itched and burned so that I scarcely slept at all."

"I had been bothered for nearly two months before I started using Cuticura, and after I had used three boxes of Cuticura Ointment with the Cuticura Soap I was completely healed." (Signed) Miss L. Burns, St. Basile, Que., June 6, 1918.

Say Air Ministry

Was Extravagant

£66,000,000 Necessary To Clear Up War Contracts.

London. — Alleged extravagance on the part of the air ministry was the subject of a debate in the house of commons. The debate began after Major-General J. E. B. Seeley, head of the ministry, had detailed economies effected since the armistice.

Twenty thousand officers and more than 200,000 men, General Seeley said, had been demobilized, while 210 aerodromes have been dismantled and 127 rented buildings had been returned to their owners. Only 1,000 officers and 60,000 men remain in the service.

The estimated appropriation for the air service of £66,000,000, the general added, was necessary to clear up war contracts.

Major-General J. E. B. Seeley, under-secretary for air, in the course of his speech, made the effective point that the efficient air force had saved the country millions in money and thousands in lives this year in connection with the troubles in Afghanistan and Egypt, where campaigns were carried out at slight cost as compared to the heavy loss of money and life in similar campaigns carried out by Lord Roberts and Wolseley.

The Hon. Fred Banbury, Unionist, argued that the people would never economize while seeing ministers riding around in expensive automobiles at the nation's expense.

Alien Will Be Deported.

Winnipeg. — The following was given out for publication by the acting immigration commissioner:

"At a meeting of the immigration board, held on Saturday, August 9, an order was made for the deportation of Samuel Blumenberg, (one of the alien labor leaders arrested during the recent strike) upon his own admission that he had made statements in connection with his entry in Canada which were contrary to the facts within the provisions of the Immigration act. It is understood that the order for deportation will be made by the minister at an early date."

Did you ever console yourself with the thought that some people look happy because ignorance is bliss.

HER LITTLE GIRL

HAD DYSENTERY

Bowels Moved as Many as 25 Times a Day.

Dysentery, manifests itself with varying degrees of intensity, but in well marked cases the attack is commonly preceded by some amount of diarrhoea, which gradually increases in severity, and is accompanied with gripping pains in the abdomen. The discharges from the bowels succeed each other with great frequency, and the matter passed from the bowels, which at first resemble those of ordinary diarrhoea soon change their character, becoming scanty, mucous or slimy, and subsequently mixed with, or consisting wholly of blood. Never neglect what at first appears to be a slight attack of diarrhoea or dysentery may set in.

Cure the first symptoms by the use of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry.

Mrs. Jno. V. Tanton, R. R. No. 8, Watford, Ont., writes: "My daughter was taken down, two years ago, with dysentery, and I could find no help for her until I got a bottle of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. She was only two years old, and ate something different to what she was used to. She had as many as twenty-five movements a day, and mostly blood. We had the doctor several times, but no relief came until we used 'Dr. Fowler's.' I would not be without it in the house for a good bit."

Be sure and get "Dr. Fowler's" when you ask for it. Price, 35c a bottle; put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Government Explains Papal Peace Proposal

Britain Issues White Paper Showing Germany Conceded Nothing.

London. — A "white paper" issued by the government deals with the papal peace proposal to the belligerents in August, 1917. The Pope, in his note, said that before everything, the fundamental point must be that the moral force of right should be substituted for the material force of force, and pointed out that this would entail a general agreement for the simultaneous and reciprocal reduction of armaments and the institution of the principle of arbitration.

The pontiff stipulated for complete evacuation of Belgian and French territory with the complete political, military and economic independence of Belgium, restitution of the German colonies and complete freedom of the seas.

Foreign Minister Balfour, the white paper continues, in acknowledging the Pope's note, intimated that until the central empires and their allies stated officially how far they were willing to go in the matter of reparation and restitution, and announce their war aims and offered effective guarantees against a repetition of the horrors of the war, the British government considered it most unlikely any progress toward peace could be made. The French government intimated that its views coincided with those expressed by Mr. Balfour.

Dr. George Michaelis, then German chancellor, replying for Germany, subscribed to the idea of enforced arbitration, the limitation of armaments and freedom of the seas, but said no word on the subject of evacuation of Belgium and France or Belgian independence. He merely expressed readiness for peace on conditions compatible with justice and corresponding to the situation.

This and the Austrian reply, which was similarly couched, were sent to Premier Lloyd George and formally acknowledged. There the matter ended, the "white paper" says.

For Asthma and Catarrh. — It is one of the chief recommendations of Dr. Thomas' Electric Balm that it can be used internally with success as it can externally.

From asthma and catarrh will find that the Oil when used according to directions will give immediate relief. Many sufferers from these ailments have found relief in the Oil and have sent testimonials.

Denekine Captures War Material.

London. — General Denekine's advance is continuing along the greater part of the southern Russian front against considerable Bolshevik resistance; the war office announced.

Kamishin, which was taken on July 28, yielded 11,000 prisoners, 60 guns, 150 machine guns and an immense amount of war material, it was added.

Flying Boat Wrecked

Wireless Operator Was Killed. Six Passengers Were Rescued.

London. — The flying boat Felixstowe Fury, which was due to start for Cape Town, South Africa, on an eight-thousand mile flight, crashed off Felixstowe during a test flight. The wireless operator on board, Lieut. MacLeod, was killed. The six passengers were rescued.

The flying boat, one of the largest of its type yet built, side-slipped and fell into the sea 100 yards off shore. The plane crumpled under the impact with the water and was virtually submerged. MacLeod was dead, strapped in his seat, when the wrecked craft was towed ashore.

Road Work for Farmers.

Edmonton. — Relief to farmers who have been hit by the drought will take the form, it has been decided, of road work, on which men who cannot leave home for work in other parts of the country will be employed. It is the intention of the public works department to discharge a considerable part of its regular road crews; and to change its road-making program for the year in such a way as to provide employment for the farmers. This policy has been adopted, according to Premier Stewart, in preference to any scheme of food distribution or similar relief, and is regarded by the government as likely to prove sufficient to meet the situation during the summer and fall months.

Lord Grey Likely.

London. — Viscount Grey of Faldoen, who retired as head of the British foreign office in 1916, it is understood, is likely to accept the post of British ambassador to the United States.

It is easier to want things than it is to get them.

100% SANITARY

Germes flourish in the seams and joints of ordinary milk pails. No matter how carefully you scald and cleanse, you never can be quite sure that some crevice which will harbor a colony which will make trouble later on.

EDDY'S INDURATED FIBREWARE MILK PAILS

are 100 per cent sanitary, because there are no joints or seams to cleanse. They are made in one piece, from wood pulp, under tremendous hydraulic pressure. The hard, glazed surface is baked on at high temperature, and is absolutely impervious to liquids. Eddy's Milk Pails are practically indestructible. They cannot be dented and no cracks can develop on the surface. Rust cannot attack them and no ordinary accident will do them injury. They cost no more than ordinary milk pails. They will save you labor now, and in the long run they will save you money.

War Lord's Gift

"The All-Highest War Lord" was by military law responsible for the atrocious policy followed by his troops in Belgium and Northern France, even if, to remove any doubt, he had not written in his famous letter to the late Francis Joseph: "My soul is rent, but everything must be put to fire and sword; men, women and children must be slaughtered." As for the monstrous doctrine that a murderer is inviolate in person if he is a sovereign, it has been obsolete in England since Stuart days. — London Daily Mail.

Taking No Advantage.

Pat and Murphy had both fallen in love with the same woman, and the only way of settling their feud appeared to be by means of a duel.

Pistols were agreed upon—at 20 paces.

Murphy, being exceedingly stout, scented an unfair advantage in favor of his very lean rival.

"Bedad," he said, "I'm twice as big a target as he is, so I ought to stand twice as far away from him as he is from me."

Pat's second saw the point at once.

"That's true for ye," he agreed. "But there's no need for ye to move further away. I'll put the matter right."

Taking a piece of chalk from his pocket he drew two chalk lines down the stout man's coat, leaving a space between them. "Now," he said, turning to his opponent, "fire away, ye spalpeen, and remember that any hits outside the chalk line don't count as hits."

To reach the top get some one out of the rut and then climb.

British Labor

Will Not Act

District Branches Refused To Issue Ballots For Referendum.

London. — Direct action proposed by British Labor's triple alliance in the form of a referendum on political subjects, is said by the Evening News to have been killed by the refusal of the transport workers' federation to take part in it. The newspaper said the federation had decided to have nothing to do with the movement and that its district branches had refused to issue ballots for the referendum.

The triple alliance is composed of the railwaymen, transport workers and miners. The alliance on July 26 decided to take a vote of its members on Labor's political demands, including conscription, Russian intervention, the release of conscientious objectors and the use of the military in labor disputes.

Must Be "Republic of Austria."

Paris. — The supreme council of the peace conference, it was announced, has advised the Austrian delegation that the Allied and associated powers have decided that the new Austrian government must be called the "Republic of Austria." This decision was taken as a result of notes from the Austrian delegation in which they referred to their government as "German-Austrian."

These notes related to proposed changes in the Austrian peace treaty. In some cases the only alteration in the clauses was the change of the Austrian government's name to German-Austria.

The turning race was another interesting event, being won by Donald, Davies and Vic Scott.

The dog race was most amusing and included three dog fights en route, and was finally won by King, Young and Taylor.

Donald, Boy Chief and Studhorse won the five-eighth-mile Indian race.

The mile open was won by Clifton of Vulcan. The result of this race was never in doubt, Clifton's horse going easy all the way, Riley and Davies taking second and third.

The squaw race did not fill and a saddle race was substituted. This race was marred by a slight accident when Basil Payne's horse ridden by Walter James, jr., stumbled and upset his rider. Davies and Scott won the money.
